DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

The Applicant's arguments entered on July 15, 2007 have been fully considered. Claims 10, 11, 29, 30 and 36 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 29,30 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. These claims appear to be directed towards neither a "process" or a "machine", but rather embraces or overlaps two different statutory classes of invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 29, 30 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 29, 30 and 36 are indefinite because they are hybrid claims. These claims appear to be directed towards neither a "process" or a "machine", but rather embraces or overlaps two different statutory classes of invention. Evidence to support an interpretation that Claim 29 is a product is found in the preamble "A server computer" ; however the body of the claim recites "a billing process for causing transfer of payment from a user to a publisher in exchange for transmission of requested content data objects; wherein the content data objects are transmitted from the publisher to the user upon the occurrence of a predetermined event". Because of this conflicting evidence it is unclear whether claim 29 is a product or process claim.

Claims 30 and 36 contain similar limitations as claim 29 and are rejected for at least the same reasons.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10 and 11 are allowable over the prior art record.

Claims 29,30 and 36 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims and the rejection under 35 USC 112 and 35 USC 101.
